

Guest Group Agreement Terms and Conditions

Reservations

- In order for CRISTA Camps to meet Guest Group needs, a Guest Group authorized representative must provide Final Participant Count and Programming Needs paperwork no later than 14 days prior to the scheduled arrival date.
- If actual Guest Group attendance is higher than the Estimated # identified on the Booking form, the Guest Group shall be responsible for a per person charge for each additional participant above the Estimated # as reflected in the Quote.

Financial Responsibility

- CRISTA Camps will provide the services and accommodations listed at the prices indicated on the Quote.
- The Guest Group and its authorized representative are responsible for payments due under this Agreement.
- Any outstanding balance due must be paid by the departure date noted in the Booking form via credit card or check payable to CRISTA Camps. All other arrangements for payment must be made prior to the Guest Group's arrival. Failure to make payment as agreed, or within 30 days of departure, may result in additional monthly late charges of 1.5% of the total balance until paid in full.

Accidents/ Insurance/ Medical

- Prior to the arrival date; the Guest Group must inform CRISTA Camps of any participants with allergies, dietary conditions, or other health concerns requiring special treatment.
- Each Guest Group participant must be present for a safety and emergency procedures orientation provided by the camp host or group leader at the start of any event.
- CRISTA Camps will provide accident insurance only. CRISTA Camps assumes no liability for loss or damage to personal property.
- The Guest Group representative is responsible for bringing a completed CRISTA Camps medical release and waiver form for each Guest Group participant upon arrival at camp. Any injury or sickness incurred during the participant's stay at camp must be reported to the camp host prior to leaving the facility. Coverage may be waived if an injury or sickness is not reported on the day it occurred.
- In case of an emergency, call 911 immediately, then notify the camp host.
- The Guest Group must designate a vehicle for emergency transportation. The vehicle designated for emergency transportation must remain available at all times and in good operational order.
- The Guest Group may be responsible for the cost of emergency transportation, first aid and emergency care for any injuries or illnesses occurring while on campgrounds. Guest Group must provide its own staff member with current age appropriate certification in First Aid and CPR / AED who will be on duty at all times.
- For waterfront events, a CRISTA Camps staff member who is a certified lifeguard, certified in First Aid and CPR must be on duty at all times during Guest Group's swimming hours. Posted waterfront rules must be followed for all waterfront activities.
- Guest Group agrees to defend, indemnify and hold CRISTA Ministries d/b/a CRISTA Camps ("CRISTA Camps") harmless from any and all claims, demands, losses, and liabilities, (including attorney's fees and costs) including all claims for personal injuries or property damage, to or by third parties, including Guest Group's participants, staff, volunteers, parents or guardians, arising from, or related to Guest Group's use of CRISTA Camps' facilities, programs or activities. Guest Group's duty to defend and indemnify CRISTA Camps shall not apply to liability for damages caused by or resulting from the gross negligence of CRISTA Camps or its employees.

Standard of Care

- The Guest Group, by signing the booking form, acknowledges that all adults in a leadership capacity attending the event have undergone safety system controls within the past 365 days; including a skillful screening process, appropriate criminal background checks and sexual abuse awareness training.

Conduct and Rules

- The Guest Group will supervise all group activities while on campgrounds; Guest Group shall be responsible for the conduct of all its participants. For Guest Groups with youth, the following Guest Group staff-to-youth ratios must be met:
Camper Age / Minimum Staff to Camper Ratio
4-5 years / 1 to 5
6-8 years / 1 to 6
9-14 years / 1 to 8
15-18 years / 1 to 10
- CRISTA Camps has the right to promote and provide information about CRISTA programs and services to Guest Group participants.
- CRISTA Camps retains the right to ask Guest Groups or their participants to cease activities that are in conflict with the CRISTA mission statement, in violation of applicable law, or create a safety hazard for guests or staff. If such activities do not cease, CRISTA Camps reserves the right to immediately terminate the Guest Group's right to remain at the facility, without refund to Guest Group which will remain obligated to pay no less than the contracted minimum charge.
- Guest Group shall be responsible for all the equipment used, and will pay loss of replacement value for damage from breakage, misuse or theft (normal wear excluded). Guest Group will be billed for damages after final inspection is made.
- The ropes course, low ropes elements, paintball fields, wood shops, trail bike program, horse barn, skate park, horse arena, waterfronts, animal pens, Noah's Landing, and archery ranges are off limits, unless being used under the supervision of trained personnel authorized by CRISTA Camps.
- No items are to be sold or displayed for sale on CRISTA Camps' grounds without prior approval from CRISTA Camps.
- Before affixing any materials to camp property, Guest Group must receive permission from the camp host.
- Specialized sports equipment brought by Guest Group must be registered with the camp host at the time of arrival.
- Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, weapons, marijuana, animals or pets are not permitted on CRISTA Camps' property.
- Pursuant to RCW 70.160, smoking is prohibited in all CRISTA Camps' buildings and within twenty-five feet of all facility entrances.

Camps' Guidelines

The Guest Group agrees to abide by all CRISTA Camps' guidelines, including any signage, warnings or notices posted on the grounds. The authorized representative accepts the responsibility of communicating these guidelines to the Guest Group participants and will follow through to ensure compliance.